Open New Golf Course, Mar. 28

Western Avenue Unit One of Best Public Links in Southland

The formal opening of the Western Avenue Public Golf Course will take place on next Wednesday, March 28, according to announcements which have been mailed, to the number of several thousand, to golf enthusiasts throughout the Los Angeles district. This attractive recreation ground is expected to be the mecca for thousands of golfers from Los Angeles county.

O. T. Johnson, Jr., speaking for the O. T. Johnson corporation and the A. P. Johnson company, informs a representative of the Herald today that special inducements will be made to regular players of nearby communities, and in view of the fact that this pay-as-you-play course is one of the finest in the vicinity of Los Angeles, it is certain to achieve instant and well deserved popularity among nearby golfers.

Championship Course

The course is 135 acres in area, extending from Western avenue north of Ballona, westward well toward Cypress avenue. It is an eighteen hole course of 6465 yards, thereby qualifying as a championship course. The holes are from 135 to 538 yards in length.

The Western avenue course possesses some unique features not utilized, so far as is known, in any other course on the coast. The strain of Bent grass, sent here originally in an envelope from Washington by the experimental department of the United States agricultural department four years ago, is utilized throughout the course on the fairways as well as the greens. Sand hazards have been eliminated in favor of this grass which provides necessary qualifications in the "rough" when it is allowed to grow without mowing. The Bent grass is so luxuriant in its growth that there literally isn't room for it all next to the soil and it is forced upward in velvety bunches that are as yielding and deep as a cushion.

The club house is actually four separate buildings. They are designed to serve the comfort and convenience of patrons. One contains the kitchen, dining room and lounge, another has the professional's shop and office. The other two contain the men's and women's lockers and showers.

Al Crowley is "Pro" Among the attractions at the Western avenue course the personal equation will also enter. Chief among these will be the presence of young Al Crowley, professional golfer par excellence, with an enviable reputation in Los Angeles and throughout Southern California.

ROYAL SOCIETY

MISS HODGE BRIDE AT PRETTY WEDDING

Of unusual interest to her many friends in Southern California is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Esther Louise Hodge to Mr. Charles Ellsworth Cook, junior, which was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the garden of the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hodge, 3117 Redondo boulevard, in the presence of 75 relatives and intimate friends of the two families. Rev. Loyal Reiser of the University of Southern California, a close friend of the groom, officiated.

The bridal party stood before an improvised altar which was massed with ferns and blossoms at the end of the wistaria-covered pergola. The lights were softened by the use of orchid and rose petal shades.

Previous to the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, by Wagner, played by Misses Ruth and Harriet Sterrett piano and violin, they played "Call Me Thine Own," and Miss Harriet Sterrett was heard in the voice selection, "All For You."

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, was lovely in her rich gown of white crepe satin and princess lace, with bridal veil of tulle held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wild sweet peas.

The maid of honor was a sorority sister, Miss Hazel Rudbach of San Pedro. Miss Rudbach wore a pink taffeta gown with basque waist and tulle bouffant skirt, and carried Killarney rosebuds and tulips.

The bridesmaids, Misses Alice and Marion Hodge, twin sisters of the bride, wore bouffant dresses of changeable pink taffeta and tulle, and carried pink and orchid sweet peas.

Mr. Albert Maddux of Santa Ana was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arthur Hodge, junior, and Mr. Vaughn Gettort of Hollywood. The bride's mother, Mrs. A. J. Hodge, wore printed chiffon over peach satin. Mrs. C. E. Cook, mother of the groom, wore beige crepe with a corsage bouquet in pastel shades.

The bride is an accomplished member of the younger social set, both here and in Los Angeles. She graduated last year from the University of California in Los Angeles, and has since been at home with her parents. She is a member of the Delta Zeta Sorority.

Mr. Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook of Santa Ana. He attended Stanford University for two years and graduated from the University of Southern California, where he is now studying law. He is a member of the Delta Sigma Pi and the Delta Theta Phi fraternities and is also a thirtysecond degree Mason.

After a short honeymoon spent in the north, Mr. and Mrs. Cook will make their home in Los Angeles.

750 PERSONS ATTEND ODD FELLOWS' BALL

It is estimated that not less than 750 people attended the Odd Fellows' Annual ball held in Recreation hall, Torrance, last Saturday night. Comments from here and there indicate that everyone of the 750 had the time of their lives.

Led by the Boy Scouts' Drum Corps, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in full regalia, paraded the business section, returning to the hall, where the degree team of the San Pedro Canton led the grand march.

The hall was gaily decorated in a St. Patrick's Day motif, and the favors were green and white daps and shamrocks. A feature of the evening was the drill put on by the drill team of Triple City lodge.

Two good orchestras furnished continuous music for dancing on a floor specially treated for the evening.

In behalf of the lodge, Fred Freeman, chairman of arrangements, thanks all who in any way contributed to the social and financial success of the affair.

CHURCH WOMEN SEW FOR MISSION WORK

Meeting in the morning, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Episcopal church passed the time in sewing for some of the mission work of the church.

At noon a delicious luncheon was served and Miss Hibbard, president of the Los Angeles Diocesan auxiliary, spoke on the work of the auxiliary and how it originated. As the scope of the work of the auxiliary is much larger than that of a guild the women of Christ church have changed to an auxiliary, as it is an auxiliary to the national council of the Episcopal church.

The members of the auxiliary help in all of the work of the church whether it be in Torrance or China. Two auto loads of members of auxiliary attended the Diocesan meeting of the auxiliary at the Cathedral house, Los Angeles, last Thursday.
